

I believe my right to privacy is more fundamental and deserving of protection than any private agency to intrude upon that privacy. New Jersey's privacy protection is far superior to the federal variety and should not be minimized.